Darling Fink,

This will probably be a Shorty Bell sweetie as there just isn't much news to write, but I wanted to say hello anyway.

The mail seems to be pretty well screwed up again. It comes in fits and starts. Oh well one of these fine days we won't have to depend on letters. We can enjoy our conversations in person.

We got busy as the dickens today. Two thirds of the trucks went out, and I got stuck with a four hour trick of another guy's guard. Then I have to go on tonite, and pull eight more so I put in a gripe, and they said I'd get credit for two full tours of guard so I shouldn't get it again for two weeks, I hope.

In tonite's S+S it said the point score will drop to 55 the first of December. It's getting closer sweetie. Maybe it'll be right down my alley by January first. I'm keeping my fingers crossed real tight darling, hoping we'll be together on our anniversary.

It's been real chilly here, and we've been getting some heavy frosts, but we haven't had snow yet. It won't make me too angry if we don't get any at all.

Darling have I reminded you lately how much I love you. Sometimes it seems I love you so very much I couldn't possibly love you more, and yet every day my love for you grows, and every day I miss you more and more. I'm just existing till that happy day when I can take you in my arms, and we'll begin to enjoy our good way of life again. You're such a dear sweet precious wife. I'm in paradise when I'm with you.

The army has set up some good radio stations over here. Every large city has one, and they all have the same call letters, AFN - American Forces Network. Every nite from twelve till two the Frankfurt station has an all ~~best~~ record program.

They usually play a lot of older tunes that sure bring back memories of some of those good times we used to have. The program itself sort of reminds me of the dawn patrol on CFLW.

Guess I'd better get a little shuteye sweetie. I'm enclosing millions of hugs and kisses and all my love.
Yours ever,
Jack
