Dear Henri:

Thank you very much for taking the time from your busy day to write me as you did on March 29 - a gesture clearly beyond the call of duty.

I have asked Fran Rosen to see if she can get us together for an evening of Chamber Music, at which time I'd like you to see some of my newer acquisitions. Polly Sweeney, of course, is enchanted at the idea of playing second violin in a quartet with you, and, of course, I would be honored to be the violist. I am hopeful that Nick Rosen can be our cellist.

God bless to you and Emmy!

Sincerely,

Nick
