Dear Emmy and Henri:

Thank you very much for remembering me by card from Paris.
I wish I were there with you and later in London, but such will not be the case.

I had called you a couple of times lately, hoping to get you to join me for an evening of dinner and Chamber Music, on an occasion when Henry Siegl was here and another when Sandor Salgo was in town.

I'm sure you are having a great trip. I look forward to seeing you upon your return.

Priscilla and Fran Rosen thank you for being remembered.

Sincerely yours,

RDC
