Darling Sweetheart,

Please forgive me for not writing yesterday, but you know how it is on a holiday. We all went over to Helen's for dinner and what a dinner! We had a turkey with all the trimmings including pumpkin pie with whipped cream. And you know what a wonderful cook Mrs Helen is. And we drank a toast to you. I hope that you will be home real soon.

after dinner we were all so stuffed we could hardly move. But when we finally got going we (Jim, Madalyn & I) went to Oberlin and visited with your folks for a while. and then we decided to go back and Chuck said he'd go with us. So we all went to the show and then we went to Jim & Madalyn's and had a few drinks and Chuck & Jim got to talking about "merry Old England, We saw those endearing young charms" with Robert Young and Lorraine Day. It was pretty good.

and then when Chuck took me home he helped me bank up the furnace and he did such a good job of it that I didn't even have to touch it this morning. The people downstairs went away for the holiday so I have to take care of it. and boy it turned so cold yesterday it snowed all day. This morning when I got up there was about an inch and a half snow on the ground.

next Thanksgiving I hope we will all be together, what a wonderful celebration that will be. But any way, ~~no~~ matter when you come home, we celebrate. We'll celebrate all the holidays ~~putted~~ rolled into one. and we will even celebrate holidays that no one even heard of.

Oh, Darling, I love you so very much, every day I miss you more and more. I miss all your sweet little ways.

The way you'd come up to me and give me an unexpected kiss. How mad you used to get at the furnace.

How sweet you look when your asleep. and how nice you always looked when you got all dressed up. Oh, Baby

Dear, I love every thing about you. you are the dearest sweetest husband in the whole world. I guess I was just extra lucky as far as you are concerned. I have the most wonderful lover. you know all the things I love.

I got three letters from you Wed. They were dated Nov 9th, 12th, 15th and I'm so glad you like where you are better then at the 78th maybe you will really learn something new. Of course eve would best like it a lot better if they would transfer you back to the good old U.S.A. That's the day we are waiting for.

I'm enclosing lots of hugs and kisses and all my love.

your Own,
Fink

Darling Sweetheart,

Please forgive me for not writing yesterday, but you know how it is on a holiday. We all went over to Kleins for dinner and what a dinner! We had a turkey with all the trimmings including pumpkin pie with whipped cream. And you know what a wonderful cook Mrs Klein is. And we drank a toast to you. In hopes that you will be home real soon.

After dinner we were all so stuffed we could hardly move. But when we finally got going we (Jim, Madalyn & I) went to Oberlin and visited with your folks for a while. And then we decided to go back and Chuck said he'd go with us. se we all went to the show and then we went to Jim & Madalyns and had a few drinks and Chuck & Jim got to talking about Merry Old England. We saw "Those endearing young Charms." With Robert Young and Lorainne Day. It was pretty good.

And then when Chuck took me home he helped me bank up the furnace and he did such a good job of it that I didn't even have to touch it this morning: The people downstairs went away for the holidays so I know to take care of it. And bag it. Turned so cold yesterday, it snowed all day. This morning when I got up there was about an inch and a half snow on the ground.
