Dear Henri:

I am sorry to have missed your call on July 9th which Fran Rosen told me about. As she probably told you I am in Carmel playing my ninth season in the viola section with the Bach Festival Orchestra. I'm the only amateur but I manage to muddle along and have a lot of fun.

I am sure sorry that I had to pass up the trip to Israel and Greece. I have never been to either country and I doubt that I will ever have an opportunity under such pleasant circumstances as those under which you went as a member of the Los Angeles Doctors' Chamber Orchestra -- but, so be it -- I guess that none of us are about to do all of the things that we would like to do.

I am certainly happy to have met you and Amy. I hope that we have many opportunities to be together in the years ahead.

My best wishes to you both.

Sincerely,

Rich Colburn
