Dear Henri:

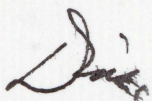

Thank you for your invitation to The Allegro Ball, on which you put a personal pen note.

Judy and I very much hoped that we could be with you, as we know it will be an exciting evening, but unfortunately we will be in San Francisco that night to attend a performance of the San Francisco Opera, and we have not yet worked out a program to be at two places at once.

I look forward to catching up with you soon.

Kindest regards,

Very truly yours,

Richard D. Colburn
