Dear Henri:

I am sorry for the extended delay in responding to your letter of January 10th which arrived while Judy and I were in Europe. We left on December 10th and did not get back until January 6th. Ever since then I have been trying to work through the month's accumulation of mail -- a seemingly almost endless task.

I still have the dream that you and I visited about and I am delinquent in pursuing it and hope that one of these days we can get back at it. I have remodeled and refurnished the house out at La Quinta which I thought would be a good place to escape to for the bull session we talked about. Perhaps we can go out there for a few days soon. I am sorry that we didn't reach you in time to play with the "Pro and Con" Quartet last Saturday, but then we can't always win. I heard your pupil, Nina Horton, in Santa Barbara Sunday evening -- Sensational!

Very truly yours,

Richard D. Colburn
