Alcantara Trio

Since their founding at the University of California, Los Angeles in 2005, the Alcantara Trio has been praised for their creativity and excellence throughout North America. They were finalists for two consecutive years at the Coleman Chamber Ensemble Competition, and semi-finalist in the Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition in 2006. They have performed in numerous chamber music series throughout Southern California, including the Concertos Pomeridiano, South Bay Chamber Music Society, Peninsula Music Festival, UCLA Faculty Chamber Concert Series, Dana Point Coastal Art Series, as well as numerous performances in Alberta, Canada, as artists in the Banff Summer Chamber Music Residency. The Alcantara Trio has also taken part in productions of Sonatasia in Laguna Beach, CA.

The members of the Alcantara Trio are graduates of the Juilliard School, University of Michigan, and the Lamont School of Music at the University of Denver. They have been coached by such renowned musicians as Paul Coletti, Gloria Cheng, Henk Guittart, Richard Naill, and Walter Ponce, and performed in masterclasses with Menahem Pressler and the Tokyo String Quartet. It is from UCLA's beloved 'Duke of Alcantara' Stradivarius violin that the trio derives its name.

CELEBRATE the creative and intellectual promise of today's rising stars by supporting the Chapman University College of Performing Arts. Your tax-deductible donation to our Fund for Excellence underwrites award-winning programs and performances. Also, your employer may be interested in the visibility gained by underwriting programs and performances within the College of Performing Arts.

We invite you to learn more about how you can assist with the construction of our new Center for the Arts, a 1,050-seat theatre which will be located in the northwest corner of campus. When completed, the Center for the Arts will be one of the largest at any university in Orange County and will feature state-of-the-art technology.

For more information about supporting our future stars in theatre, music and dance and the exciting programs produced by the College of Performing Arts, contact Kevin Cartwright, Director of Development for the College of Performing Arts at 714-289-2085 or cartwrig@chapman.edu. Thank you for your interest and continued support!
