Darling Fink,

First sweetie I'll apologize for not writing since Friday morn, but our mail service has gotten a holiday from Sunday thru' today, and I knew the letters wouldn't go out anyway. Then too I knew I wouldn't be able to write good ones as there isn't anything to write about.

It doesn't seem much like Christmas here. It's very mild out, and instead of a few inches of snow there's a few inches of mud on everything. It's a good Christmas tho' darling 'cause I know it's the last one I'll be away from you. Next year we'll celebrate all the holidays right-together. In another week I'll be eligible for discharge, and I hope it doesn't take long to get moving in the redeployment pipeline.

Darling I love you so very much, and every day we're apart seems like an eternity. We have so much lovemaking to catch up on we'll just have to spend the rest of our lives making love. You're such a dear sweet loved girl, and I'm just existing till that happy day I can take you in my arms, and never let you go. I'm always thinking of the wonderful times we've had together, and the future will be even more wonderful if that is possible.

I hope your cold didn't give you much trouble honey. I got rid of mine in a couple days. This climate here is very poor. It's even damper than at home.

I love the billfold you sent me lover. I'm saving it till I get those crisp American dollars to put in it. Another reason I want to carry the old one is because I keep those pictures you took in the house in the zipper compartment. I love to look at them darling, but I'll love it even better to see you in person. Your flesh looks so smooth and white. Since such a genuine lover I won't be able to leave you alone for a minute.

Sweetheart I have my fingers crossed so tight hoping we'll be together for our anniversary. If something should happen that I don't get home then we'll celebrate it when I do get there. We have a pretty good chance tho' so maybe we won't have to celebrate later. Oh darling I want so much to be with you. It will be our first anniversary together in three years.

All my love and millions of hugs and kisses to the sweetest and dearest and darriest and best wife in all the world.

Your lover,
Jack
