MRS. ELIZABETH SPRAGUE COOLIDGE

Hotel Continental,
Cambridge, Mass.

February 24, 1943.

Mr. Henri Temianka,
34 Edwards Avenue,
Sausalito, California.

Dear Henri:-

I am sending this to your old address as I have inadvertently thrown away the announcement of your wedding reception at your new home, but I hope that you will receive it without fail. This is just to congratulate you upon what I am sure is a very happy event, and to ask you to give even warmer congratulations to the fortunate young woman who is now Mrs. Temianka. I took the liberty of sending you an insignificant little wedding token, hoping that when the Summer comes, you may perhaps enjoy some out-of-door meals or tea parties, for I wanted you to know how interested and sympathetic I am in your happiness.

With all good wishes, I am as always

Affectionately yours,

Elizabeth S. Coolidge
