Feb 13,

Darling Lover,

I sure have been a stinker about writing. But I keep thinking perhaps you would be on your way home. I guess this last waiting time is the hardest of all. I miss you so terribly much. you are probably just as impatient as I am.

Sunday I went over to Oberlin and had dinner with your folks. Chuck fixed the heater on my car. I couldn't figure out why I wasn't getting any heat, so he opened the heater and fixed the little fan. In the evening Bill & Dally came over and we had a fast game of pinochle. and Dally & I beat the boys 2 out of three.

I've been getting letters pretty regular from you. But, Darling, nothing has been said about coming home. But, Baby Dear, don't worry if we aren't to-gether on our anniversary, we celebrate it when you come home. And don't forget we have two more anniversaries June 23 and Nov 26. And we will be to-gether on those.

Oh Sweetheart, I love you so very and I miss you more and more every day. I miss every little thing about you. your smile, your voice, your laugh and just every thing. Baby when you come home, I'll just walk into your arms and never come out. you are the dearest sweetest and most precious husband in all the world and I'm always so proud to go with you. We will go shopping and buy every thing you have always wanted. you will be the best looking civilian that ever was.

This will be a Shorty Bell, Darling.

I'm enclosing lots of hugs and kisses and all my love.
your own,
Fink
