HONG KONG.

Dear Emmy & Henri,

Your formal invitation to the Allegro Ball has just arrived. Many thanks.

What a glittering array of super stars!

All the more therefore we regret our inability to attend. In any case we do deeply appreciate the honour you've done us by inviting us.

What we shall miss the most is the chance to be in your precious company. We do hope that you will be here again in 1983?

Our Hongkong Phil is having trouble again; there has been strong confrontation between the conductor, Ling Tung, a fine musician and director, and the orchestral members.

It is such a pity just at this juncture, when the standard of the orchestra has reached the highest level since it became professional.

We hope your brilliant son, David, will come to Hongkong again before long. It would be such a pleasure to welcome him to our new home.

With warmest regards and best wishes, in which Bella joins me,

Yours as ever,

The telephone number of our condominium is

Lake Tahoe is (916) 583-0485

We shall be there from June 5 to 14
