Dear Henri,

Thank you for the lovely news about your forthcoming celebration. Yes, I would be honored to be included among all those who, like myself, wish to pay a special tribute to you: to the artist, the educator, humanist and exceptional human being.

While you will be judging young talents in Beijing, I shall be doing similar work under the chairmanship of our beloved Joe Gingold in Indianapolis.

My calendar tells me that I am to rehearse and to perform in Denver from October 14 till 17. What a pity not to be able to congratulate you personally on such a special day.

My wife joins me whole-heartedly in sending you as of now our warmest wishes for a glorious celebration day. We fully share your joy with you and your dear wife!

*Affectionately
yours
Henryk Szeryng*
