Dear Aaron:

As I mentioned to you ~~on~~ the telephone, you may be contacted within the next few days by the producers of Century Video from Los Angeles, who will be in New York. It is Century Video's hope that you might be willing to ~~narrate~~ narrate a series of educational television programs they are creating, ~~concerning~~ concerning a broad range of American music, from early folk music to jazz and on ~~to~~ to the present day.

I believe that this is a thoroughly ~~whoc~~ while project, with which I am rather familiar because my son David is directing the special visual effects of this ~~series~~ series.

If you are at all available for such a program, they are prepared to meet any fee you will quote. The producers' names are Sandra Turbow and Larry Scheer.

In the meantime, I am still looking forward to receiving the letter you promised to send me accepting our invitation to be present for our tribute to you at Royce Hall on October 19 and the Mark Taper Forum on October 20. It would be most helpful if you could send ~~me~~ me without delay so that it may be included in our brochure, which is about to go to press and is only being held up in anticipation of your letter.
