Dear Henri:

It was very nice to get your enthusiastic letter, and of course I was pleased that you 'caught me' on TV with the New York Phil.

It is also very kind of you to suggest a concert during the 70-71 season in connection with my up-coming birthday. At the present time, I have no plans for being in California during that period.

It occurs to me, in any event, that I may not have sufficient number of chamber-symphony-size works to make such a concert feasible. (I confess I have forgotten what the makeup of the Chamber Symphony is.) Perhaps if you send me a list, I could tell you more specifically what might be available. Also, it wasn't clear in your letter as to whether you were thinking of me as attending the concert as spectator, or actually taking part as conductor.

Friendly greetings,
