Mr. Aaron Copland
1538 Lower Washington Street
Peekskill, NY 10566

Dear Aaron:

You know that my affection and respect for you are such that under no circumstances would I impose on you. I just want to be sure that you don't think I am taking anything for granted. You did give me your full consent to announce your presence at our opening concerts at Royce Hall, UCLA, and the Mark Taper Forum on Sunday and Monday, October 19 and 20, 1980. I have therefore done so. It is clearly understood that if your plans change, you are obviously not held to this commitment.

Should you find time to write the letter which you intended to send me it would, of course, be appreciated.

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
