Dear Mr. Copland:

Everyone is thrilled in anticipation of your coming here on February 21 and 22. At the present time the logistics are being worked out with regard to available auditoriums and budgets. Everything has been set in motion and final decisions are only awaiting the several committee meetings that will take place next week when the college officially opens.

Please bear with us until then. We will have finalized everything by next week, at which time you will be hearing from me and also from the head of the music department, Dr. Gerald Strang.

Let me say again what a great pleasure it was to be with you in Los Angeles recently.

Cordially yours,

Henri Temianka
