Dear Aaron:

Many thanks for your letter of February 13. I am delighted and grateful that you are going to be with us next November 24, and delighted also with the suggested program. At a later date we can decide on the possibility of using Music for the Theatre. There is plenty of time for all this.

The only thing missing is the contract, which according to your letter, was to have been "enclosed". It must be hiding somewhere among your papers. In order to save you valuable time, I have asked my office to send you another copy of it, which please return at your convenience with your signature.

When you know your exact schedule, I shall look forward to knowing the precise date and hour of your arrival.

Yours devotedly,

Henri Temianka
