Dear Henri:

When I was in Los Angeles recently I happened to pick up a copy of your 1970-71 program announcement in one of the music stores. I noted that you had me down as conducting the eight Dickinson Songs on May 2nd.

I assume of course that this announcement was prepared while we were still discussing the matter. However I naturally would appreciate it if this were corrected in any future publicity concerning the concert series.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Henri Temianka
