Dear Mr. Temianka:

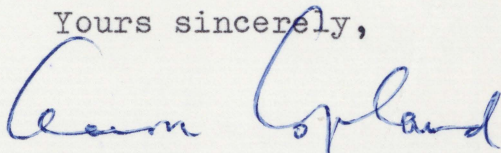

Thanks for your letter of May 20th. I'm not surprised, of course, that it wasn't possible to coordinate dates for your orchestral concert and my visit to San Francisco.

Once again, and regretfully, I must disappoint you in the matter of a lecture. I have been confining my activities more and more in recent years to conducting and composition. I have in the past done so much lecturing that I have confined such engagements only to appearances when I am in the area.

I suggest ~~then~~ that we put off the idea of my making a special trip to Los Angeles and wait an occasion when I shall be there during the school year.

With friendly greetings....

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Aaron Copland". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.
