Dear Mr. Temianka:

I was glad to have your letter concerning your interest in performing my Clarinet Concerto on tour next season. Naturally I am reluctant to abandon the harp part in the first movement, but I can understand your problem also. For that reason I am willing to authorize performance for the purpose of the tour substituting piano for harp as written.

Performance authorization is the province of my publisher, Boosey and Hawkes, 30 West 57 St., New York. You might write directly to the head of the New York office, Mr. David Adams, in order to make the necessary arrangements.

With all best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
