Mr. Aaron Copland
Kahala Hilton Hotel
Honolulu, Hawaii

Dear Aaron:

Your visit and concert here will be remembered with joy and gratitude forever. Neither of these sentiments, of course, is reflected in today's LOS ANGELES TIMES review, but then that would be expecting too much. We have to be thankful for the critic's patronizing pat on the back, and the TIMES has been admirably consistent in its fifteen-year-long determination never to recognize any merit in the California Chamber Symphony or its founder. It is for this reason that it would be particularly meaningful if you would put pen to paper to tell us again what you so generously said to us last Sunday evening.

I hope you are having a wonderful time in Honolulu, and I shall look forward to talking with you when you return to Peekskill next week.

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
