Dear Henri:

I have been giving your proposal a good deal of thought and I am not at all happy to have to write you that I have decided that I am unable to take part in the concert for a number of reasons. I have ahead of me a particularly heavy schedule for next season and have unfortunately come to the conclusion that I have already taken on as much as I possibly can.

I realize that this will be a disappointment to you, but I want you to know how much I appreciate your thinking of me in connection with your concerts.

With all friendly greetings....

As ever,

Mr. Henri Temianka
