

11-18-1992

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (davenport)

David Davenport

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka\_correspondence

---

Recommended Citation

Davenport, David, "Henri Temianka Correspondence; (davenport)" (1992). Henri Temianka Correspondence. 792.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka\_correspondence/792

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Henri Temianka Archives at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Henri Temianka Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

---

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (davenport)

Description

This collection contains material pertaining to the life, career, and activities of Henri Temianka, violin virtuoso, conductor, music teacher, and author. Materials include correspondence, concert programs and flyers, music scores, photographs, and books.

Keywords

Henri Temianka, David Davenport, November 18, 1992, virtuosity in musical performance, culture, violinist, violin, chamber music, camaraderie, death, husband, wife, family

PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY

---

PRESIDENT

November 18, 1992

Mrs. Henri Temianka
2915 Patricia Avenue
Los Angeles, California 90064

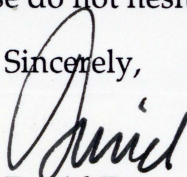

Dear Emmy:

Sally and I were deeply saddened to learn of Henri's death. He was truly a wonderful man and a genuine friend, and we know he touched the lives of so many people, not only through his music, but also through his winning and loving ways.

On behalf of the Pepperdine University community, I extend to you our sincere sympathy. Henri meant so much to this University. I have many fond memories of him which include his eightieth birthday celebration, his receiving the Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree at our December graduation in 1986, his many fine performances on our Smothers Theatre stage, his excellent teaching which he demonstrated to many of our students, and his strong support of higher education. Pepperdine University has indeed lost a valuable and extremely talented friend.

Please extend to your sons our sincere sympathy. I am sure your many friends and devoted family members have been sources of comfort to you at this time. Do remember those of us at Pepperdine, and know, too, that if there is anything we can do for you, please do not hesitate to call on us.

Sincerely,

David Davenport
President

X