Dear Henri,

I am planning on producing a commemorative Spring issue of the Journal of the American Viola Society on William Primrose who passed away ten years ago. I have approached a number of friends and colleagues of Primrose asking if they would care to write a brief tribute or testimonial to his memory.

As a guide I would suggest that it is not necessary to recount the obvious in Primrose (i.e. his great virtuosity, his marvelous sound, etc.,) rather each contributor who knew him personally might be able to offer insight from personal experience into his genius or his human qualities. This could be in the form of a vignette, a writing of not more than 500 words. The date for submission would be 1 March 1992, to my Brigham Young University address found in the left hand bar of this page. (Fax: [801] 378-5278)

I would be most grateful to you if you felt inclined to add your reminiscence to this commemorative issue on Primrose, a copy of which you will receive.

Thank you for your consideration.

Cordially,

David Dalton, Editor
Journal of the American Viola Society

P.S. If for any reason you wish to decline it would be helpful for me to know this as well.
