

5-17-1974

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (delmoni)

Arturo Delmoni

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Delmoni, Arturo, "Henri Temianka Correspondence; (delmoni)" (1974). Henri Temianka Correspondence. 809.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence/809

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Henri Temianka Archives at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Henri Temianka Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (delmoni)

Description

This collection contains material pertaining to the life, career, and activities of Henri Temianka, violin virtuoso, conductor, music teacher, and author. Materials include correspondence, concert programs and flyers, music scores, photographs, and books.

Keywords

Henri Temianka, Arturo Delmoni, May 17, 1974, virtuosity in musical performance, culture, violinist, violin, chamber music, camaraderie, Jascha Heifetz, soloist, concert tour, Arthur Fielder

May 17, 1974

Mr. Henri Temianka
2915 Patricia Avenue
Los Angeles, California

Dear Mr. Temianka:

I am finally settled back in New York City after a rather enlightening (?) stay in the Heifetz class. I did return to Los Angeles after my concerts in Oregon, but it was for only a couple of days, during which I spent all of my time attending to various details (i.e. selling my car, gathering some belongings I had left behind, etc.) so, knowing how busy you are, I decided not to call you.

I cannot tell you what a great honor and pleasure it was for me to meet and play for you. Your encouragement and kind words will always serve as a wonderful inspiration to me - and, of course, I always have your records!

And how can I thank you for that magnificent letter of introduction you sent about me to Arthur Fiedler - really and truly, I am most grateful to you. I have written to Mr. Fiedler and I certainly hope he will have some time to hear me.

I shall keep you posted about my "doings" and I hope that it won't be too long before we meet again, at which time I would hope that it might be possible to arrange to play some chamber music together. That would really be thrilling for me.

In the meantime, I hope all goes well for you. Please send your lovely wife my fondest greetings and I hope you both have a pleasant and relaxful summer.

Most cordially,

Arturo Delmoni

1122 Avenue S
Brooklyn, New York 11223