Dear Norman:

I cannot thank you sufficiently for the continuing acts of friendship with which I am rewarded. First of all, I understand that you gave up some valuable time in response to a request from the Beverly Hills TV Cable Company. I shall look forward to seeing the finished product, and feel honored that you have been willing to participate in it. Also, a thousand thanks for the articles you send me. They are tremendously enlightening and I save them all.

Our loving thoughts to you and Ellen.

Yours devotedly,

Hawi
