Dear Henri,

The past few weeks have found me on the road much of the time, so I am late in writing to congratulate you on your 80th in general and "Henri the 80th" celebration in particular. Ellen and Bob Grey have given me a full report, augmented by your own note. I have a very vivid picture of Maestro Temianka elevating an already festive event to an explosively joyous occasion, the reverberations of which will be happily felt for many years to come.

Affectionately,
