Dear Norman:

I am overcome by your thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of "The Republic of Reason." The tempo of your creativity makes me realize that all the rest of us are just standing still. The articles you have been kind enough to send me are read and deeply appreciated. When I see you next, (which is far too rarely), I hope I can persuade you to autograph this latest gift.

I know that you don't celebrate your birthday, but I do, so I tried to phone you last June 24, but could not reach you. We shall be off next week for a long concert tour, combined with vacation, covering LaJolla, Paris, Italy, Belgium and Sweden. Back on August 26, at which time I hope we can make plans for a long overdue reunion with you and Ellen.

With much affection and admiration,

Yours ever,

Henri
