My dear Norman:

You, more than anyone, encouraged me to write my book, Virtuoso, which is now about to be published by David McKay Company. A couple of years ago, I sent you an earlier version of the same book to which you responded with some very generous comments. Since the book has been considerably changed, I have asked Dan Catlin of David McKay to send you a set of the galleys. I fervently hope that you will like it as well or better than the earlier version and would be profoundly grateful if you would give me some comment and consent to let us use it on the book jacket.

I continue to follow your activities with admiration and hope that we shall have an early opportunity to meet in person.

With affectionate greetings to you and Ellen,

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
