Dear Henri:

Many thanks for your most welcome letter about my editorial "Reflections on a Revolution." It's good to know you liked the piece, and it's wonderful to hear from you. What, incidentally, have you heard from your own fine piece of writing, your autobiographical memoir? Last I heard it, it was being considered by a publisher. Hope the news will be good. And I hope to see you soon -- perhaps when I'm next on the Coast, or when you come through New York. Warmest to all.

Best wishes,
