About the Artists

Support locally grown chamber music! Third Wheel presents a concert of music written by living and local Southern California composers, with much of the program written specifically for the group. Explore the West Coast perspective on new music for woodwind trio, and learn what can happen when you build a relationship with a composer. Get to know the works of these great woodwind-friendly writers, representing a wide range of truly eclectic compositional styles. Presented by the Southern California-based ensemble Third Wheel, a group well-known as champions of new music and local composers.

Laura Stoutenborough performed as the Principal Clarinet of the Tucson Symphony Orchestra from 2010-2013. Laura is currently an active freelance musician, teaching and performing in the Los Angeles area. She has performed with orchestras throughout the southwest, including the Santa Barbara Opera, San Bernardino Symphony, Long Beach Opera, Arizona Opera, Downey Symphony, Las Vegas Philharmonic, and the Tucson Chamber Artists. Laura received her Doctorate and Master of Music degrees from the University of Southern California, studying with Yehuda Gilad, and received her Bachelor of Music degree as a student of Burt Hara at the University of Minnesota. As a concert soloist, Laura's performance highlights include performing Mozart's Clarinet Concerto with the Tucson Symphony Orchestra, as well as winning the 2008 concerto competition at the Music Academy of the West. Passionate about teaching, Laura has an active private clarinet studio in Los Angeles, and has given clarinet masterclasses as a guest artist for the Tucson Symphony, at the University of Minnesota, and at Waldorf College in Iowa.

Karin Kantenwein Fabiero is an orchestral performer, teacher and chamber musician. She has performed with the Orquestra Sinfonica UANL in Monterrey, Mexico, and with the American Wind Symphony Orchestra on their "Spirit of Louisiana" tour. She has also performed in the pit orchestra with the College Light Opera Company in Falmouth, Mass. Mrs. Fabiero earned a Bachelor of Music in flute performance from the University of Southern California, studying with Gary Woodward and James Walker, and she earned a Master of Music in flute performance from the University of North Texas, studying with Terri Sundberg. During her college studies, she had the opportunity to work with well-respected conductors and composers such as Robert Reynolds, Sergei Comissiona, Eugene Corporon, Anshel Brusilow, John Williams and Morten Lauridsen. While at UNT, Mrs. Fabiero performed with the esteemed North Texas Wind Symphony. She can be heard with this ensemble on Klavier Recording Project and GIA WindWorks: Poetics, Passions, Altered States and Transformations. Recently, she has performed as soloist with the Orange County Symphony, and been a substitute with Pacific Symphony and the Southeast Symphony. Mrs. Fabiero is a member of the Music Teachers' Association of California and the honorary music society Pi Kappa Lambda. Mrs. Fabiero teaches at Claremont Community School of Music and is the flute professor at Mt. San Antonio College.

COLLEGE OF PERFORMING ARTS

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:

Last year we welcomed over 11,000 audience members to our performances, concerts, recitals and events, making it our best attended year ever. In addition to our student performances, our season always includes choreography, direction and concerts by our stellar faculty and visiting artists who are accomplished professionals, each with a true passion for the arts.

As a lover of the arts, you have a crucial role to play to ensure our success and the success of the students who are at the heart of all we do. It is my hope that you will help provide our students with the tools and resources they need with your gift to the Fund for Excellence.

A gift to the Fund directly supports these College priorities:

- Production costs for the 200-plus live performances of dance, music, theatre and opera the College produces each year;
- Recruitment of professional visiting artists for technique and master classes;
- Scholarships and travel funds for our student touring ensembles and conferences.

Performances like the one you are about to see are an important part of our students' academic and artistic curriculum, exposing them to experiences that hone their artistic sensibilities. Our students graduate with more training, more experience and more professional opportunities to launch their careers in the performing arts and performing arts education.

Each one of our students will benefit from your decision to support the College. With your gift, you will be a part of a family of individuals who demonstrate, year after year, their commitment to developing the talents of young artists. I hope you join us not only because you value the arts, but because you want to invest in our next generation of artists.

Enjoy the performance, and I look forward to seeing you again at our performances throughout the year.

Sincerely,

Dale A. Merrill, Dean
