My dear Norman:

I can't understand how any one person can be so brilliant, so profound and so prolific in so many different ways. Had you ever taken up the violin, Jascha Heifetz would have headed for the hills. With The Human Adventure, which we just received, you have opened another window on the human soul, shedding a warm light on the most tender and subtle feelings of people of every color and creed.

We shall cherish this latest gift as we cherish all your previous ones.

Much love to you and Ellen from us both,

Henri
