Dear Henri:

It was a pleasure indeed to receive your recording of the Handel sonatas. The records came yesterday, and unfortunately we had time only to play one of them. I must say, however, it wets the appetite for more. The tone is beautiful, and that and the performance give proof that the early tutoring which you received on Pine Road is still bearing fruit. How happy this must make you.

Quite aside from the music, I must say we think the photograph of the artist is superior. You look just the way you did on that very happy day when we had luncheon at the Quo Vadis; an event which by the way we still hope to repeat very soon.

Posy joins in sending love to Emmy. We wish that both of you were not so darn far away. We do hope, however, to see one or both of you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Charlie.
