Mr. David Leo Diamond
Villa Maria
Via Ugo Fuscolo 72
Florence, Italy

Dear Mr. Diamond:

What a pleasant surprise to receive your music and your friendly little note! I shall look forward to the day when we can meet personally.

I have been interested in your music for a long time and hope that one day I shall have the opportunity to perform one of your works. At the present time I dare not take on any further commitments, because the Quartet has undergone changes of personnel two years ago, and we are still working away at restoring all our standard repertoire, in addition to which we have extensive commitments at the University.

There is a possibility that we may come to Europe later this year. What are your activities in Italy aside, naturally, from composing? Perhaps we shall have an opportunity of meeting.

With kind regards,

Yours cordially,

HT:mm
