Dear Friend:

We are looking forward to the pleasure of having you with us at the Forum on Sunday morning, November 14, 1965, when your topic will be "Music and Civilization."

We will instruct the parking lot attendant to reserve a stall for your car in the Temple parking lot at Wilshire and Harvard Boulevards. I shall be waiting for you at 10:00 o'clock in the Religious School office on Hobart Boulevard. As you know, the Forum begins at 10:15 o'clock and ends promptly at 11:45. You may, if you wish, take one hour for your main address and reserve 30 minutes for questions. Should you prefer, you may shorten the time of the main address and take more time for questions.

In accordance with our understanding I shall ask the Temple office to draw a check for $500 as your honorarium. We thank you in advance for your gift of $250, which you will send to us to be used for the Forum budget.

We are happy to send you copies of our Forum brochure and a guest membership card for the entire series. I hope to see you at a number of these lectures.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Maxwell H. Dubin
