Dear Leo:

I am delighted that so discerning a reader as you enjoyed my book, and I am equally delighted with your informed comments.

Emmy and I loved your description of your audition for the opera in Mannheim. The world may have lost a great musician as a result of that catastrophic incident, but it was amply compensated by all the benefits you have since conferred upon it.

Emmy is making a wonderful recovery, after three months of severe suffering, and narrowly-averted major surgery.

With warmest regards and thanks,

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
