Mrs. Elizabeth E. Erichson, Secretary to the Director
The Curtis Institute of Music
Rittenhouse Square
Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania

Dear Mrs. Erichson:

Thank you for your letter of March 2, 1966. Jimmy Fields telephoned me to say that he had had a second long distance telephone communication with you, in the course of which he informed you that he is no longer studying with Mr. Victor Aller and is therefore a free agent. He informs me that you find this explanation satisfactory and that he is now officially enrolled as a student at the Curtis Institute, beginning in the fall of this year.

I would appreciate it if you would send me a written confirmation of this, so that I may have the necessary documentation with which I can approach some local foundations for financial support to pay for Jimmy's transportation and living expenses while he is studying at the Institute.

Thanking you,

Yours most sincerely,

HENRI TEMIANKA
