Dear Henri:

Thank you very much for your kind note of March 24 and the beautiful invitation to the Allegro Ball. I must say you do everything in wonderful taste. I enjoyed your book very much and am passing it on to some of the musicians in the orchestra who want to read it.

I am hoping to hear from you whether the rehearsal time is convenient with my arrival time in Los Angeles. I shall be in Vancouver from April 1 to 6 at the Georgia Hotel, so if you have any further communication for me you can reach me there. We will send the scores and parts for everything on the program and for the three encores (Bolzoni Minuet, Jazz Legato and Jazz Pizzicato).

Looking forward to seeing you,

Cordially,

Arthur Fiedler

P.S. I wonder if you would be kind enough to send me right away to Vancouver the cuts and repeats, if any, that you might make in the "Haffner" Rondo, and also copies of the cadenzas which you play. I would like to see them before I get to Los Angeles.
