Sincerely yours,

Jack [unclear]

Dear Friends,

I had misplaced the copy of the Palisadian and saw it only today.

Your great interview together with the charming pictures of you both gave me the greatest pleasure.

I was less pleased with the article about me - I had nothing to do with it - I consider the publication of my private life and doings as very regrettable.

But this does not prevent me from congratulating you both.

Cardially yours,

Mark Twain
