My dear friend:

We have tremendously enjoyed the evening with the California Chamber Symphony in Royce Hall the other night. What a fine orchestra! What a beautiful music! It makes us even more sad to move from this city where we have enjoyed so many cultural events in which our close friends were involved. The only consolation is that if we have to go into exile from California it is at least Paris that we have been exiled to.

With my kind regards and hoping to be able to shake hands before we leave,

Yours sincerely,
