My Dear Carl:

It was a great pleasure receiving your letter of October 6. I can well understand your reluctance to send the CD by air mail as this would truly be an extravagance. For the same reason I have not sent you my two CD's released by Biddulph earlier this year. In that instance though, Biddulph would be honored, I am sure, to send you a complimentary set of the CD's if you will just phone Eric Wen, the producer of these recordings at Biddulph and tell him you are calling at my request. He is of course familiar with your legendary name.

You are kind to inquire after my sister. She died last June 26 at the age of 88, but received the most exquisite, loving care and suffered little. My older son, a physician, and his wife who used to be a nurse, insisted on keeping my sister in their home until the very end, an extraordinary act of love.

I am impressed by the sensational organization of the Flesch Competition. Albert Frost always keeps me informed.

With all good wishes to you,

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
