24th November 1992.

Dear Emmy,

I was shattered to learn of Henri's passing. To you and your family my most heartfelt sympathy.

He and I met more than 60 years ago and saw a lot of each other when he lived in London. Subsequently we met rarely but remained firm friends. So many prominent people will have written in his memory that anything I can say would only be a repetition. His charm and sense of humour, his kindness and helpfulness, his talents and his outstanding successes will make him unforgettable to me as for everybody else who had the privilege of knowing him.

We share your sense of loss!

Very sincerely Yours,
Carl

Carl F Flesch.
