Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 19th ultimo addressed to Mr. Gomme of the Ministry of Labour stating that you desire to come to London in the autumn for the purpose of giving a mastercourse of teaching in the violin between the 1st October and 22nd December next, I am directed by the Secretary of State to say that, subject to the usual examination by the Immigration Officer at the port of arrival, he does not desire to raise objection to your coming to this country for the purpose mentioned. You should produce this letter in due course to the Immigration Officer on arrival.

I am

Sir,

Your obedient Servant
