Stephanie Baldwin is a senior who will graduate with a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies with a concentration in music. She was in the University Choir at Chapman for three years and went to Italy with the choir last January. She has taken voice lessons with Margaret Dehning for the 3-1/2 years she has been at Chapman, which is part of ten years of voice training. She has performed in several musical theater productions including My Fair Lady, The Sound of Music, Annie, H.M.S. Pinafore, Oliver and Kopit and Yeston's Phantom. She would like to thank Margaret for not only being the most amazing voice teacher, but also a great friend.

Sara Analeis Price is a transfer student from Bakersfield College in her junior year at Chapman. She is an English major with an emphasis in Literature, but enjoys singing in the University Choir and University Singers as an extra-curricular activity. Sara hopes to obtain her BA at Chapman and pursue a Masters in Literature. Ultimately, she plans on teaching English to junior high students. She would like to thank her immediate and extended family for their constant love and affirmation, and her friends for their unending support and affection.

Tessa White is a sophomore pursuing a B.F.A. in Theatre Performance with a minor in music. Since attending Chapman, Tessa has been seen in American Celebration 1999, Savage/Love, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead, and American Celebration 2000. In May, she will perform in the Theatre and Dance Department's production of the music She Loves Me, directed by Michael Nehring, and will perform in a workshop version of The Vagina Monologues next weekend, March 29, 30 and 31 at Chapman. Tessa is originally from Memphis, Tennessee and would like to thank her family and friends for their endless love and support.
