Dear Mr. Fickler:

I understand from our mutual friend, Givon Cornfield, that you received my cable of May 2, accepting your formal invitation to come to Israel to work with your orchestra for approximately one week beginning August 27. According to Mr. Cornfield you ~~were~~ planning to send me details on the engagement the very day you happen^{ed} to speak with him. I am therefore surprised to be still without news from you. Time is getting short, I have many other activities to coordinate during the summer, and I am holding the week of August 27 open for you. Kindly let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
