Dear Jimmy:

Thank you for your very nice note. I have been thinking about you and, during my stay in New York, in vain tried to reach Mr. Serkin. I finally reached him from Montreal and had a long talk with him the day before yesterday. He would like you to send a tape of your playing to him. His address is: 1215 Fifth Avenue, New York City, New York. I asked him what he would like you to play and he mentioned, above all, Bach. So go ahead, Jimmy, and write him a little note when you send the tape. I am sure that Mr. Serkin will do all he can.

I shall be back around the middle of February and hope to find you in first rate health at that time.

Yours very cordially,

HENRI TEMIANKA

P.S. With kindest regards to your mother.
