Dear Bob:

Thank you for your gracious invitation to the opening night performance of the Los Angeles Festival on Thursday, September 3, 1987. I accept with the greatest pleasure and have so marked my calendar. May I assume that this invitation will also include my wife?

Allow me to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your exciting new assignments, and to express my boundless admiration for your extraordinary accomplishments. I have indelible memories of the superb artistic events that you brought to the Olympic Arts Festival in 1984.

With kind regards,

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
