My dear George,

I thought that the art of letter writing had vanished in this day and age, but your masterpiece dated April 15 is definitive proof to the contrary. I would not miss your fabulous Open House party for anything in the world. Count on my presence, complete with the warmest kind of cockles, to turn this party into one unforgettable celebration.

With every good wish for the continued success of KFAC under your dynamic and inspired guidance.

Yours always,

Henri Temianka
