Mr. Henri Temianka
2915 Patricia Avenue
Los Angeles 46, California

Dear Henri:

I was greatly touched when I received this morning the beautiful humidor and the delicious Dunhill cigars. I shall treasure the humidor for the rest of my life as a precious memory of a wonderful concert and a lovely week-end with the Temianka family.

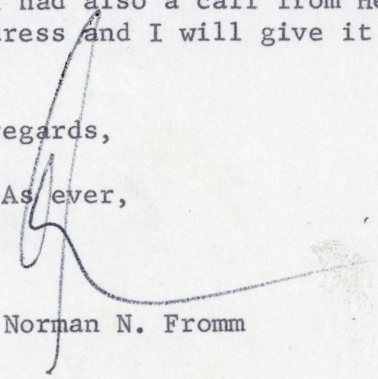

Natalie and I are looking forward to seeing you on Friday, July 27th at Montalvo, if not before, and I hope you put on your calendar the date of July 28th when we would like to have you and your associates at the Winery for a swim and supper.

I had an opportunity to talk to our Los Gatos friends, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lambertson about you and they would be delighted to get together with you and have you spend some time with them on their beautiful hilltop while you are at Montalvo. They are expecting your call.

William Vandenburg left a blue top coat at the Winery. Would you please give him a ring and ask him to send me a postcard with his address so I can return it. I had also a call from Helen Salz who would like to have Willie's address and I will give it to her as soon as I receive it.

Again, many thanks and warm regards,

As ever,

Norman N. Fromm
